

CAL POLY SFPE

Dear Sponsor,

The California Polytechnic State University at San Luis Obispo started a graduate program in Fire Protection Engineering (FPE) in 2010. This is the only program of its kind on the West Coast and only the third program in the country. The number of students enrolled has continued to grow since the program's inception, and it has become a major source of talent for companies both on the West Coast and elsewhere across the country.

The Cal Poly Society of Fire Protection Engineers Student Chapter is a group of students who are interested in pursuing careers in Fire Protection Engineering. Our mission is to provide awareness of the graduate program and different aspects of Fire Protection Engineering through various activities. The chapter has held several informational sessions, invited guest speakers, organized site visits, attended SFPE conferences and distributed job postings to achieve this mission. None of this would be possible without your help.

Student membership for the chapter has been, and will remain, free. We truly believe this strategic choice will continue to attract many young engineers interested in the Fire Protection field. Therefore, we cordially request your sponsorship for the 2015-2016 academic year to allow the chapter to continue to thrive. Additional information on sponsorship will be discussed below:
